IN APPRECIATION OF OUR COUNTY SCHOOL

For the past twelve years the seniors of '61 have been on the stairway to success, steadily climbing upward. Now, at last, we have reached the top. This means that we shall be leaving our country school soon, but not empty handed. We shall carry with us all the pleasant memories of our school days and the pride that goes with accomplishment. We feel in debt to B. F. Grady and should like to pay tribute to our beloved country school. With pleasure we present the memories of our senior year.

DEDICATION

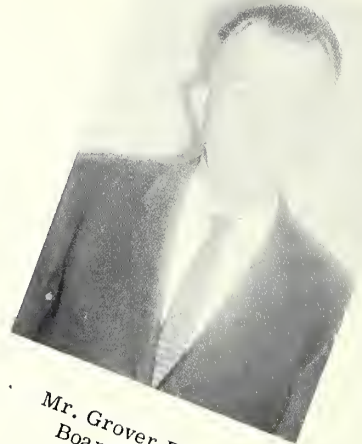

MISS BESSIE KORNEGAY

To you whose love for B. F. Grady School is without end, whose determination has been to build character in its students, whose loyalty and devotion to the best interests of the hundreds of students who have been under your supervision, the students and faculty gratefully dedicate this record of our lives in the 1960-61 edition of "The Overflow."

HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES

CLASS HISTORY

The year was 1957, the time, 8:30 A.M., the place, B. F. Grady High School. This was the setting when we, a group of excited freshmen, first entered high school. We discovered that Mrs. Alice Davis and Mr. Alton Whaley would be our home room teachers. We immediately elected the following class officers: Presidents, Faye Harper and Jackie Miller; Vice-Presidents, David Grigg and Eleanor Herring; Secretaries, Nell Howard and Sandra Herring; Treasurers, Kenny Page and Betty Hardy; Reporters, Marlene Taylor and Linda Jones. We found that in high school there were numerous activities to occupy our time, such as: club meetings, dances to attend, homework to prepare, and, of course, basketball games. Several of us made the varsity team and we were very proud of that. Many of us attended our first banquet that year.

With all of these activities our freshman year slipped by and we were soon sophomores. The newness of being in high school had worn off and we were now looking forward to becoming seniors. We elected our class officers under the supervision of our home room teachers, Mrs. Edna Ward and Mr. Larry Stewart. They were: Presidents, Nell Howard and David Grigg; Vice-Presidents, Billy Jones and Sandra Herring; Secretaries, Lu Jean Harper and Judi Kornegay; Treasurers, Hope Welch and Alice Dail; Reporters, Peggy Williams, Jackie Miller, and Linda Jones; Parliamentarians, Betty Lou Sanderson and Carolyn Grady.

Our junior year started with a bang by breaking the school records for selling magazines. The next big thing we did was to select our class rings. After much debating, we decided on a red set with a black "G" embedded in it. When our rings finally came, we were as "proud as peacocks".

"Hessie of the Hills" was a big hit. Directed by Mr. Edgar Wells, with a wonderful cast, it was very successful. Everyone enjoyed helping with it and we just hoped our senior play would turn out as well.

The highlight of the year was our Junior-Senior Banquet held at the Goldsboro Hotel. There was a lot of work and lots of fun. The theme of our banquet was "Junior-Senior Shangrila".

Our senior year came so quickly, we could hardly grasp the idea. Our sponsors, Miss Mary Anna Grady and Mr. Edgar Wells, were a great help to us. The officers of our class are: President, Judi Kornegay; Vice-President, Gail Grady; Secretary, Janice Holt; Treasurers, Alice Smith and Elsie Outlaw; Reporter, Peggy Williams; and Devotional Chairman, Nell Howard.

White caps and gowns have been selected for graduation. Our invitations and calling cards have been ordered. Our money-making projects have been varied and we are sure that by the end of the year we will be able to take our long awaited Washington-New York trip.

We are all looking forward eagerly to our graduation. This will be a happy and an important event in our lives. It will also be sad as we realize that we are actually finishing high school. We will know that things will be much different then and we will have to plan and make a place in life for ourselves.

CLASS PROPHECY

1214 Peachtree Street
Paris, West Carolina
May 20, 1971

Professor Billy Jones
B. F. Grady Institute of Learning
Albertson City, N. C.

Dear Billy,

I am very glad you were able to arrange with your fellow faculty members for our class (the class of '61) to have our reunion at our old high school. So that you may have a vague idea of what we are going to do, I'll outline the program the planning committee has arranged.

To begin the day, Faye Harper, a psychologist in Norfolk, Va., will be in charge of our devotional. Joyce Lee and Deloris Taylor who are telephone operators in Tiny Town; Nell Howard, secretary for a Beaulaville construction firm; and Wanda Byrd, medical secretary at Virginia Beach are going to sing with Faye to bring back memories of their group singing in our high school days. By the way, these girls are all happily married and have children. The committee asked Judi Kornegay to render some of the songs which she sings on "The Lonesome Soldiers' Show" at Fort Knox. Judi lives there with her husband and two little ones. Janice Holt, guidance counselor for Raleigh City Schools, has consented to have something planned to amuse the children who are at the reunion. Betty Ann Hardy Waters and Eleanor Herring Boyette will assist Janice. Both of them have plenty of experience in working with the tiny tots.

Everette Westbrook and Jackie Miller are planning some activities for outside. Did you know they are coaching the area champion basketball teams over at East Duplin High. In case some of us have too big a day, Alice Faye Smith, M. D. will be there to set broken bones or dress blisters. Alice has her own office now. Carolyn Grady will be able to assist her since she is a registered nurse at Rex Hospital.

Clayton Creel will bring some of the things he has constructed in his own "New and Old Fix it Shop" located in Sarecta. Among the things he'll bring will be his idea of a perfect car. Dennis Stroud is going to check over this to see if he agrees. Dennis has his own garage at Miller Town. He specializes in transfer trucks.

Melda Harper, owner and operator of Mel's Restaurant in Tiny Town, has agreed to serve us our lunch at 12:45 in the Institute lunchroom. Willie Rae Rouse, Carolyn Bell, and Zylphia Carol Smith who work as airline hostesses for T. W. A., and Carolyn Jones who has a partnership in "Kornegay's Food" located at Outlaw's Bridge will help Melda with the serving.

After lunch the committee decided to let the "men-folks" ride over to Scott's Town and tour Seth Blizzard and Robert Dail's huge Agriculture Test Farm. I hear it is the only one of its kind in Southeastern N. C. They have asked Phil Outlaw, Area Farm Agent, to explain in detail the usefulness of this type of testing to everyone.

To entertain the women while the men have gone, Dorothy C. Stroud has promised to bring the latest styles from her "Paris Original Dress Shop" in Raleigh. Kathryn Dunn and Irene Herring, models for the Jonathan Logan Company will show some of the newest creations.

Betty Lou Sanderson has the main office for her chain of Sands Photo Studios in Raleigh, N. C. Betty Lou has agreed to take action shots of the reunion. Judy Patterson Bostic, who manages the Sands Studio Branch in Greenville while her husband goes to school; Robert Smith, electrical engineer for the new Du Pont Plant at Houstons; and Linda Stroud, secretary in the Tiny Town Bank, have arranged to help Betty Lou. Did you know that Betty Lou, Robert and Linda Jean are each very happily married.

David Grigg, Donnie Mercer, and Woodrow Heath are to serve as the decorating and welcoming Committee. Comparing notes should be fun to these three math instructors. David is a professor of math at E. M. I., Donnie at East Duplin and Woodrow at Maready.

Elsie Jean Outlaw Taylor has promised to run a feature about our reunion in her paper, "The Outlaw's Bridge Review." She and her husband and three children live in the town of Outlaw's Bridge. Peggy Sue Williams editor of the "Sarecta Herald" has given us the same promise. By the way, Peggy's husband is the editor of this paper. Can you imagine? Ronnie Holt, chief of police in Wadesville, Kenny Page, police chief in Trenton and Lewis Smith, highway patrolman in Jones County have promised to park the cars and direct traffic.

It sounds as if everyone in our class has had a degree of success. I can't wait to see them and their families. Can you? So long. I'll be seeing you the big day of the reunion.

A classmate always,

Gail Grady
